

Associate of Applied Science (AAS) Student Learning Outcomes

1. Critical Thinking

SLO AAS: Demonstrate proficiency while performing nursing skills incorporating clinical judgment and evidence based practice.

2. Holism

SLO AAS: Evaluate and incorporate holistic principles while caring for individuals, families, and communities across the lifespan.

3. Nursing Process and Safety

SLO AAS: Establish priorities and ensure safe, quality care while utilizing the nursing process.

4. Communication

SLO AAS: Model effective communication and leadership when collaborating within interdisciplinary teams.

5. Ethics

SLO AAS: Model accountability in nursing practice while adhering to legal and ethical principles.

6. Advocacy and Leadership

SLO AAS: Advocate for professional and leadership role development in self and others.

7. Education and Health Promotion

SLO AAS: Implement teaching plans and health promotion in a variety of settings throughout the lifespan.

8. Respectful Care

SLO AAS: Serve as a caring and respectful advocate in promoting hope, health, and healing, while preserving human dignity.